

Eckington School

KS5 Curriculum Roadmap

Building Futures

Into Year 13

Your Balance

Students enjoy reward activities after working hard.

Your Toolkit

Subject reflect and review to make changes to their toolkit in response to their progression exams.

Your Engagement

Students are reflective learners to ensure Year 12 content / learning is secure to prepare for Year 13.

Your Growth

Students reflect their skills / abilities, and knowledge in relation to the world of work

Your Career

Students recognise a range of career possibilities in different sectors and begin to develop their applications.

Your Moral Compass

Students understand that on the road to becoming a young adult they need to explore a moral compass.

Half term 6

Parents Information Evening - Post 18 applications evening

Your Balance

Students understand the importance of being prepared and organised to avoid being overwhelmed.

Your Moral Compass

Students understand that on the road to becoming a young adult they need to explore a moral compass.

Your Career

Students begin to formulate decisions and pathways for next steps.

Your Growth

Students recognise their 'Your Growth' journey and make plans for moving into future destinations.

Your Engagement

Students embed the application of independent learning into their revision in preparation for their progression exam.

Your Growth

Students begin to recognise skills that are strength and skills where they need to develop.

Your Career

Students explore individual pathways based on their current ideas and thinking and reflect on their skills, strengths and areas for development.

Your Moral Compass

Students understand that on the road to becoming a young adult they need to explore a moral compass.

Your Balance

Students understand the importance of making time for themselves.

Half term 5

Your Toolkit

Students hone revision skills in preparation for their progression exams.

Your Engagement

Students understand how level 3 courses may impact on their next steps / future destinations providing them with motivation to reach their potential.

Your Toolkit

Students reflect and adapt their working practices based on their reflection in preparation for their progression exams.

Half term 4

Your Balance

Students understand the support that is available to them.

Your Moral Compass

Students understand that on the road to becoming a young adult they need to explore a moral compass.

Your Toolkit

Students understand the importance of using their toolkit to be prepared.

Your Engagement

Students reflect on their engagement as an independent learner.

Your Growth

Students continue to engage with opportunities and develop transferrable skills and more in depth knowledge in areas of interest.

Your Career

Students explore individual pathways based on their current ideas and thinking and reflect on their skills, strengths and areas for development.

Half term 3

Parents Information Evening - Post 18 Pathways

Your Balance

Students feel a valued part of the community.

Your Moral Compass

Students understand that on the road to becoming a young adult they need to explore a moral compass.

Your Career

Students explore options and pathways available to them Post 18
Students make connections with Post 18 choices.

Your Growth

Students engage with opportunities and develop transferrable skills. They acquire more in depth knowledge in areas of interest.

Your Moral Compass

Students understand that on the road to becoming a young adult they need to explore a moral compass.

Your Balance

Students make new friendships and acquire confidence through a variety of experiences.

Half term 2

Your Toolkit

Students implement the tools needed for level 3 study and reflect the impact and review working practices.

Your Engagement

Students begin to apply the independent learning skills needed for level 3.

Parents Consultation Evening

Your Career

Students build their personal profile and understand the importance of media, literacy and digital resilience. Students understand the need for early career exploration.

Your Growth

Students begin to recognise the opportunities available and how it can impact personal development.

Your Engagement

Students understand the transition from level 2 to level 3.

Your Toolkit

Students understand the tools needed for level 3 are more developed and require independence in comparison to Level 2.

Half term 1

Y12

Transition support and induction days

Half term - Welcome evening for Y12 parents